Graduate Credit Course

for Participants in the 2005 High School Reinvention Symposium

608. Implementing High School Successful Practices

The International Center for Leadership in Education, in conjunction with the Colorado State University-Pueblo, is pleased to offer a three-credit-hour graduate course based on the 2005 High School Reinvention Symposium.

Course Requirements at a Glance

- ◆ Read a series of publications, which will be discussed at the Symposium
- ◆ Attend all presentations at the Symposium
- ◆ Attend at least two of four special Graduate Course sessions at the Symposium, led by qualified adjunct faculty
- ◆ Write an action plan (8-12 pages) for high school reform that describes:
 - local challenges that must be overcome to improve achievement for all students
 - identify and plan high school or successful practices to be implemented

The cost of the course is $395, which includes all publications as well as special Graduate Course Sessions and all transcript/registration fees.

To receive three hours of graduate credit:

1. Send in the enclosed registration form with payment by check, purchase order or credit card for $395, payable to the International Center for Leadership in Education
2. Attend Symposium sessions and Graduate Course sessions as specified above
4. Mail paper/project to the International Center by October 31, 2005

An official transcript will be issued by Colorado State University-Pueblo.
