

Using the Rigor/Relevance Framework™ for Planning and Instruction

This resource kit provides planning tools and professional development activities to raise the level of rigor and relevance in all subjects and all grades. It is based on the Rigor/Relevance Framework, which helps teachers focus on student work that requires both complex thinking and application of knowledge and skills to real-world situations. The kit serves as a comprehensive guide for training teachers to develop instruction that will prepare today's students for advanced education and tomorrow's workplace. Included are:

- a step-by-step process for increasing rigor and relevance in curriculum, instruction, and assessment
- electronic versions of all tools, handouts, and worksheets
- a video presentation on rigor and relevance
